“HAMLET” - W. Shakespeare

SPETTACOLO IN INGLESE CON ATTORI MADRELINGUA

Genere: Commedia Interattiva Durata: 55 minuti+dibattito

The Play Group present what is often considered the greatest English language play ever written - Shakespeare's Hamlet. This world famous play is a story of treachery and revenge and was Shakespeare's most popular play during his time. It has enjoyed unparalleled popularity on stage and in film ever since.

When the protagonist Hamlet learns that his uncle, Claudius, has killed his father, the King of Denmark, and married his mother Gertrude, he sways on the edge of madness. One day he sees the ghost of his father. The ghost tells him that it was his brother Claudius, the new king, who killed him and commands Hamlet to get revenge. This sets in motion a train of events that destroys both Hamlet's family and the state of Denmark.

The exhilarating production will delight your students as the Play Group, using accessible language, alternates high comedy with terrible tragedy, audience involvement and of course generous doses of British humour.

The language levels are tailored to all levels of English, from Elementary schools to High schools and Universities. Students are encouraged to ask questions (in English) after the show about the play or any subject that may interest them.

On booking, teachers will be able to download the didactic packet from the Play Group's website. The packet will help your students gain maximum enjoyment and benefit from the show. It contains an introduction to the storylines, themes, vocabulary, exercises, games and audio files to help students' pronunciation.
